

James V. Robertson

Of Counsel – Los Angeles

Jim Robertson is a flexible, responsive transactional lawyer with broad in-house, corporate and financing experience, covering mergers & acquisitions, commercial finance, construction law, securitization, and project finance transactions. He has structured, negotiated and closed numerous complex domestic and cross-border transactions, and has deep experience with corporate governance.

Prior to joining Zuber Lawler, Mr. Robertson spent almost nine years as in-house counsel for design-build energy services contractor ENGIE Services U.S. (and its predecessor in interest Chevron Energy Solutions Company), where he was responsible for negotiating and closing more than $950 million in revenue generating transactions.

Before going in-house, Mr. Robertson was a Partner in the Corporate and Finance Group of the Los Angeles and Tokyo offices of Sidley Austin LLP. He is a former chair of the Commercial Transactions (formerly UCC) Committee of the Business Law Section of the California Lawyers Association

Speaking Engagements

- Panelist, Solar & Wind Power vs. Farmland: “The New Battleground?”, Environmental Law Section of the Bar Association of San Francisco.
- Presenter, “How To”, California State Bar Business Law Section’s webinar series in Contract Drafting, Review and Negotiation.

Email: jrobertson@zuberlawler.com

Phone: +1 (213) 596-5620

Education

Stanford Law School
J.D.

Lewis & Clark College
B.A., cum laude

Bar Admission

California
District of Columbia
New York

Court Admission

U.S. District Court – C. District of California